

What is Erasmus+ 2021-2027?

EU's commitment to fostering education, training, youth, and sports collaboration

Key Action 1 (KA1): Learning Mobility for individuals, including students, staff, and volunteers

Key Action 2 (KA2): Cooperation for Innovation and Exchange of Good Practices, between organizations, institutions, and stakeholders

Key Action 3 (KA3): Support for Policy Development through policy cooperation and innovation in education, training, and youth

Jean Monnet Actions: Focused on promoting excellence in teaching and research in the field of European Union studies.

Opportunities for people and institutions from Thailand

International Credit Mobility (ICM)

- HEIs: Find a partner institution in Europe & aim for the mobility agreement
- Individuals: Check with your home institution & apply for the mobility activities

Erasmus Mundus Joint Masters (EMJM)

- Individuals: Apply directly to the consortium website
- HEIs: Take part in the degree offering consortium

Capacity Building in Higher Education

- HEIs: Assess your institution needs and potential & find a partner institution for forming the alliance, learn from experienced HEIs for best practices sharing

What Thailand can benefit from Erasmus+ 2021-2027?

- International Collaboration: open up opportunities to collaborate with European counterparts, leading to valuable partnerships and knowledge exchange
- Capacity Building: enhance skills, competencies, and institutional capacities in various fields
- Mobility Opportunities: study exchanges, internships, and training programs in European countries, enriching academic and professional experiences
- Innovation and Modernization: gain insights into innovative practices, teaching methodologies, and technologies employed by European partners
- Networking and Best Practices: gain exposure to diverse perspectives, leading to the adoption of effective strategies and solutions.
- Promoting Inclusivity and Diversity: foster a more inclusive and diverse educational environment in Thailand, aligning with global best practices
- Global Competitiveness: enhance global competitiveness in education, research, and innovation, by exposing to international standards and practices can elevate the quality of Thai institutions
- Addressing Global Challenges: align educational activities with global priorities in contemporary challenges such as environmental sustainability, digitalization, and social inclusion